

Terms and provisions

This document is intended solely for information purposes and is not an offer or invitation to sell or buy tokens. VOTES tokens do not grant the right of control. Possession of VOTES tokens does not grant their holder the right of ownership or the right to property in VOTES. While the opinion and feedback from the community may be taken into consideration, VOTES tokens do not grant any right to participation in decision making or any direction of development of the business associated with the VOTES platform. VOTES tokens may be used for organization of votings based on the VOTES platform.

No guarantees of acquisition of incomes or profits

All the examples of income and profit calculations used in this document were provided only for demonstration purposes or in order to demonstrate the industry averages and do not represent a warranty that these results will be achieved according to the marketing plan.

Normative uncertainty

The technologies associated with blockchain are subjected to supervision and control from various regulatory authorities all over the world. VOTES tokens may fall for one or more inquiries or actions from their part, including, but not limited to, posing a restriction on the usage or possession of digital tokens, such as VOTES, which may decelerate or limit the functionality, or repurchase of tokens by VOTES in the future.

VOTES tokens are not an investment

VOTES tokens are not an official, or legally binding, investment of any kind. The goals listed in this document may be changed by reason of unforeseen circumstances. Although we intend to achieve all the points described in the present document, all the parsons and parties participating in buying VOTES tokens do it at their own risk.

Quantum computers

Technical innovations, such as the development of quantum computers, may be potentially dangerous for cryptocurrencies including VOTES tokens.

Insufficient implementation

Although VOTES tokens should not be considered as an investment, they may become valuable in the course of time. Their value may also drop if the VOTES platform experiences a shortage in their usage and application.

Risk of financial loss

The funds collected in the process of ICO are not insured. In case of their loss or depreciation, there is no private or public insurance representative who the buyer could apply to.

Risk of failure

It is quite possible that for various reasons, including, but not limited to, inadequacy of the business agreements or marketing strategies, the VOTES platform and all the subsequent marketing actions in regard to the funds collected in the ICO may fail to achieve success.

Integration

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties in relation to the subject matter of the present Agreement. All the previous agreements, discussions, presentations, warranties, and conditions are integrated in this document. There are no warranties, presentations, conditions, or agreements between the parties, either express or implied ones, except for those clearly specified in this Agreement.

The present Agreement may be amended only by means of a written document duly executed by the parties.

Risk of using new technologies

Crypto-tokens, such as VOTES, are a fairly new and relatively untested technology. In addition to the risks mentioned in this document, there are additional risks, which cannot be foreseen by the team of the VOTES platform. These risks can manifest themselves in other forms of risks than the ones listed here.

Disclaimer of warranties

You agree that your use, or loss of use, of VOTES tokens is performed solely at your own risk, and you shall absolve the VOTES platform from any responsibility. Since the moment of their issuing, VOTES tokens will be sent to you without any warranties, either express or implied ones, including the disclaimer of any warranties for all the implied warranties of commercial value for a particular purpose, name, without infringement of anybody's intellectual property rights, as the disclaimer of implied warranties may not be allowed in some jurisdictions, the aforesaid exemptions of implied warranties may not apply to you.
